Breaks Silence

De Gaulle Willing To Take Office

PARIS — French resistance hero Gen. Charles de Gaulle announced today that he is ready to take over the leadership of France.

His dramatic announcement came at a time of worsening crisis that has brought the Fourth Republic to the verge of civil war.

IT WAS DE GAULLE'S first public announcement after more than four years of silence and was an almost open declaration that he believed the bickering French political parties and the patchwork government of Premier Pierre Pflimlin no longer could deal with France's mounting difficulties.

In Algiers today, Gen. Raoul Salan, French commander in chief in Algeria, placed his 40,000 man army squarely behind the rebellious junta. Salan also paid significant tribute to de Gaulle.

"TODAY, IN FACE of the troubles which are mounting again in the country, it should know that I hold myself ready to take over the powers of the republic," his terse statement said.

The statement posed no conditions. In the past de Gaulle has demanded a free hand in return for his return to power which he also has said could be only if it were by popular demand.

DE GAULLE WAS NOT present when his formal statement was issued at his Paris headquarters. He had made one of his regular visits to Paris Wednesday but had returned during the night to his country retreat 150 miles east of Paris.

Mother of Mass Killer Insists That Son Is Sane

LINCOLN, Neb. — The mother of mass killer Charles Starkweather clashed with her son's attorneys in court today and refused to back up their plea of insanity, which could save him from the electric chair.

Mrs. Guy Starkweather, a tiny woman with red hair like her son, told the jury she didn't think there was "anything mentally wrong with Charlie at the present time."

SHE BLAMED THE 19-year-old killer's troubles on his 14-year-old girl friend, Carl Fugate. The girl "had a hold" on Charlie, she said, and he wasn't the same after he began going with her a year and a half ago.

Defense attorney T. Clement Gaughan was blunt with the mother.

"You think it is normal to kill eight, nine, 10 or 11 people?" he asked.

"NO," Mrs. Starkweather said in a voice almost inaudible. "But I don't think there is anything wrong with him at the present time."

Gaughan drew from her the admission she was "disgusted" with the way the defense was conducted.

Navy Constellation

5 Killed as Plane Crashes, Burns

TAFT, Calif. — A four-engine Super Constellation Navy plane, trying vainly to make the Taft airport, crashed and burned five miles northeast of here Wednesday night, killing at least five persons aboard.

The plane took off from Ontario in southern California bound for Moffett Field, near San Jose.

Names of the dead were withheld pending notification of relatives.

SHERIFF'S DEPUTIES and firemen worked by searchlight, pouring water on the smoldering wreckage to cool it enough for a check of the fuselage.

Five bodies, believed to be members of the crew, were pulled from the forward section of the plane.

Witnesses said the big craft, assigned to a naval air transport squadron at Moffett, dropped two red flares and turned on its landing lights as it swept low over 15 homes in the Honolulu Oil Company's main camp at one end of the airport and smashed into a hill.

THE PLANE BURST into flames on impact and was destroyed. Wreckage was scattered over a wide area burned over after the crash. The county fire department quickly extinguished the blaze.

Cecil Kehoe, manager of the Taft Airport, said the Constellation circled over one end of the air field several times, then disappeared behind a low hill at one end of the strip on a wide swing.

The pilot of the craft apparently was making a desperate effort to reach the field on the turn around when the plane ploughed into the hill, he said.

New Bombing Ups Tension In Lebanon

U. S. Navy Task Force Races Toward Country

BEIRUT, Lebanon — Terrorists bombed a coffee shop in Beirut's main square today in a new eruption of violence in the struggle to oust pro-western President Camille Chamoun.

The army immediately blocked off the area. Unconfirmed reports said between 12 and 14 persons were killed, the gravest of several sporadic clashes and bombings reported today.

IN CAIRO, THE semi-official Middle East News Agency said in a dispatch from Damascus that Lebanese rebels had seized the government's summer headquarters some 30 miles from Beirut. Terrorists threw their bombs into the small coffee shop at the end of the Place des Canons. The blast shattered the relative calm of what had been the government's best day since the crisis began.

AMERICAN OFFERS of aid to Chamoun's government appeared to have helped turn the tide of rebellion in favor of the pro-western leader.

A U. S. Navy task force of 11 ships carrying 3,600 Marines was racing toward Lebanon and the Navy was flying in anti-air equipment today or Friday to Chamoun's police forces.

A MOSCOW RADIO broadcast heard in London charged the U. S. with "open interference" in the Lebanese struggle. The broadcast, in Arabic, said Chamoun was "planning to use American weapons to fight the anti-imperialist popular movement."

The coffee house bombing broke a calm that had returned to the city. Newspaper vendors and popcorn sellers were back at their old stands and the square was crowded when the bomb exploded.

Army and police units immediately converged on the spot. They conducted a personal search of everyone within a five-block area of the square.

THEN THEY CLEARED the area. The troops opened fire three times at persons who tried to flee during the search and clearing operation.

The unconfirmed casualty reports attributed six or seven deaths to the bombing itself and another six or seven to army and police action.

One police official said about 20 persons were injured.

Nixon Given Welcome Due 'Hero' Today

President Joins Thousands in Airport Greeting

WASHINGTON — Vice President Richard M. Nixon came home to a hero's welcome today from his violence-marred "good will" tour of Latin America.

President Eisenhower, the Cabinet, members of Congress, and Latin American diplomats joined thousands of Washingtonians and college students in a thundering salute to Nixon.

THE VICE PRESIDENT and Mrs. Nixon, stoned and spat upon by a mob in Caracas, Venezuela, just two days ago, flew here from Puerto Rico. The good will which they failed to find in Venezuela, Peru and Colombia was evident in great abundance as the vice president and his wife arrived at Washington's National Airport.

The big four-engine military transport plane which flew the Nixons from San Juan touched down at 8:57 a.m. p.d.

THE CROWD BEGAN to gather at the airport long before Nixon arrived.

One of the early arrivals was the ambassador of Nicaragua, Don Guillermo Sevilla — Sacasa, dean of the diplomatic corps. He said all of the Latin American ambassadors would meet here Friday to arrange a banquet in honor of Nixon.

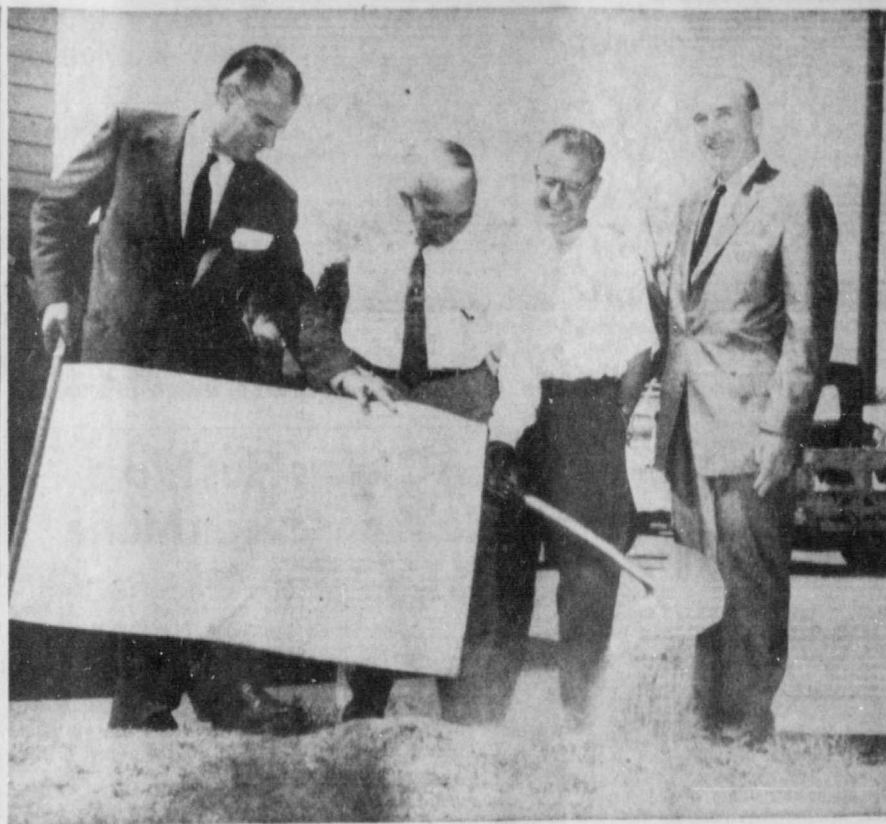

HUNDREDS OF college students poured into the airport area. Many waved flags of the Latin American nations and scores of signs provided by, according to the students, the Young Republicans of the District of Columbia.

A large delegation from Catholic University, including sisters and priests with the students, joined the other college delegations.

TWO HIGH SCHOOL bands blared away, although there was no military honor guard or military band, this at the request of the White House and the State Department.

The signs proclaimed "Communist cowardice wins — Nixon courage wins" and "We're with you, Dick." Numerous signs were in Spanish.

The Latin American diplomatic corps arrived in force nearly an hour ahead of Nixon's arrival.

GROUND BREAKING CEREMONIES were held yesterday for the new county administrative offices in Indio, with county and desert city dignitaries present. ## 'Walking Street' Proposed For Palm Canyon Drive

Palm Springs should make Palm Canyon Drive a "walking street" with nothing but stores along the drive and sidewalks uninterrupted by driveways.

This was a statement by SI Eisner, special planning consultant to the City of Palm Springs, who spoke to a combined meeting of the Planning Commission and the City Council yesterday in the council chambers.

EISNER SAID THAT the City of Palm Springs should try to acquire off-street parking facilities along Belardo and Indian Avenue, and showed members of the two groups a map outlining his solution to the local parking problem.

Weather

Desert Area Forecast: Mostly sunny today and Friday but some high cloudiness. Friday, slightly warmer today with highs 82-92 upper valleys, 92-102 lower valleys.

Yesterday's high, 95, low, 54.

At the same time, Eisner warned the Planning Commission and the Council to "not be careless" in zoning the mile of Indian land on Section 14, adding that he did not think a mile of C-1 (commercial) would be beneficial. He charged the two groups with protection "of the city's basic resources" and said that the first resource is "quality."

"I DON'T THINK you dare be careless," said Eisner. "Once you establish commercial values on this land, you can't zone it back."

The planning consultant asked that the city defer any plans for Section 14 zoning along the Tahquitz - McCallum strip "until I can make a study and come up with a plan for good zoning."

THE QUESTION of the zoning of the property "has been a hot potato" before both the commission and the council" but Eisner said he did not want to give any answers until he could make some studies and come up with a concrete plan.

The session of the two bodies was a progress report made by the planning consultant who has been working on a master plan for the City of Palm Springs for some 22 months.

Hy Ranes, local planning director, told the members of the two groups that all the funds for Eisner had been used up, and that it would cost about $3,500 more, combined with $5,250 of federal money to complete the program.

EISNER HAS finished land use maps, population distribution charts, growth charts, zoning plans, fire station studies, civic center reports, and possibly the most controversial of all, street and highway plans.

All the studies have been completed so that they can be kept up to date whenever major changes take place.

Word was received here from Washington this week that the $5,000 Federal Planning grant "has been approved for the City of Palm Springs."

Twice Size Of Previous 'Man Moons'

Apparently Does Not Have Aboard A Live Animal

MOSCOW — The Soviet Union sent its third Sputnik into orbit today. The new satellite weighed almost a ton and a half, twice the size of any previous man-made moon, indirectly indicating the tremendous power of the Soviet intercontinental rocket.

The exact weight of the new satellite was given as 1,327 kilograms—2,925.63 pounds. It was more than double the size of the now defunct Sputnik II, the largest satellite until today, which weighed 1,118 pounds and carried the space dog.

IT WAS MORE than 100 times larger than the biggest U. S. satellite, Explorer III, which weighs 31 pounds.

Sputnik III apparently carries no living animal, but contains a considerable amount of important apparatus for scientific checks.

The new satellite is a cone-shaped tube 11 feet 8 1/2 inches long, and five feet 8 1/2 inches in diameter at its base.

THE FOURTH STAGE of the launching rocket is following the satellite in a close orbit. The Soviet announcement said Sputnik III represented a new stage in the scientific investigation of the upper layers of the atmosphere and in the study of cosmic space.

Prof. Cyril Stanukovich, a noted Soviet astrophysicist, said launching of this Sputnik is expected to reveal data that will facilitate space flights to the moon "within the nearest possible future."

"THE LAUNCHING of the third artificial satellite carried out in the Soviet Union is probably a still more grandiose event of the first two satellites," Stanukovich said.

He said Sputnik III, now the only Soviet satellite in orbit because the first two long since have disintegrated in the earth's atmosphere, "is equipped with the most varied precision apparatus."

Johnny Boyle Is Undergoing Plastic Surgery

Johnny Boyle, guitar-playing cowboy singer who has entertained around so many campfires and at El Mirador, Desert Inn, Oasis Hotel, Shadow Mountain Club and so many other spots that he has become practically a Palm Springs tradition, is undergoing plastic surgery on two fingers of his left hand, following an accident on the Rancharos ride.

The freakish accident occurred on the trail of a lengthy ride on the next to the last day of the annual Rancharos ride. Johnny was roping, when he caught the fingers between the rope and the saddle horn in a severe rope burn that took the flesh off. Surgeons at the Cottage Hospital in Santa Barbara are grafting new skin and hope to preserve the use of these two fingers with which Johnny fingers his guitar.

His wife, Tani, who is here at their home on North Calle Marcus, says that her husband will probably be in the hospital for another three weeks.

Zsa Zsa Claims Has More Trouble Than Queen Marie

WASHINGTON — Zsa Zsa Gabor says she's had more trouble from the fur coat Lt. Gen. Rafael Trujillo gave her than French Queen Marie Antoinette had from her jewels.

But Rep. Wayne L. Hays (D-Ohio) compared her to another Frenchwoman — Madame Pompadour, mistress of King Louis XV.

HAYS TOLD THE House that unless Trujillo, son of the Dominican Republic dictator, stopped giving expensive gifts to Zsa Zsa out of his $50,000 a month allowance, "the old man is going to have to raise the ante."

Hays asked the House to kill $600,000 in foreign aid for the Dominican Republic. That amount, he pointed out, is what young Trujillo's living expenses of $50,000 a month come to in a year's time. The dictator's son is a military student at Fort Leavenworth, Kan.

HOWEVER, THE House defeated Hays' proposal.

THE HOUSE ROCKED with laughter when Hays said Trujillo certainly was following President Eisenhower's advice to "buy now."

But silver-haired Zsa Zsa, in Washington for a night club appearance, said she was tired of being subjected to an "inquisition" because of the coat.

She said the coat was chinchilla and worth $17,000. Trujillo has called it a mink worth $7,000 or $8,000.

Obviously irritated, Zsa Zsa said she wished people would stop hounding her about a "stinko" fur coat that was "going to be old in six months."

Police Quiz Youth Who Admits Stabbing Teacher

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Police today quizzed polite-speaking Joe William Grabber, 12-year-old redhead who admitted stabbing his piano teacher 19 times with an eight-inch hunting knife Wednesday while neighbors watched, frozen with horror.

Prosecutor J. Frank Holt said the youngster showed no remorse. "That's what has me worried about him," Holt said. He said he had not decided what charge would be filed against the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Grabber. He was being held in the juvenile detention home.

THE BOY, DESCRIBED by family friends as "intelligent in school," calmly told Holt he "got excited" when his teacher, Mrs. Kirk Killian, 64, grabbed a rock he had been playing with during his piano lesson and struck him on the head.

Neighbors said they heard the woman screaming and rushed to her front porch. The boy was crouched over the elderly widow and plunging his bone handled knife into her body, they said.

Graham Says Sex Is Like Fire; God-Given

SAN FRANCISCO — Billy Graham says no age has emphasized sex more than ours — "and enjoyed it less."

Sex, the evangelist told an audience of 14,900 at the Cow Palace Wednesday night, is God-given and can bring heaven or hell—depending on how it is used.

"Sex is like fire," he said. "Used wisely, it can be a blessing. Used unwisely, you can be burned by it."

He took as the text for his sermon, 16th of his six-week crusade, the Seventh Commandment: "Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery."

Referring to the modern emphasis on sex, Graham said: "Now that we are free to do as we like, we don't like what we do. Many people are growing sick by their sex liberties."

Lighting Bill 'Electrifies' Cielo Vista P-TA Group

The Cielo Vista Parent-Teachers Association was literally "electrified" by a bill which they received from the school district electrician last night.

The bill was for installation of lights at the annual Country Fair which is held on an area adjacent to the multi-purpose room, and was for a total of 23 hours that had been expended by the school electrician to install the temporary lights.

It totaled $31.

Members of the P-TA balked at having to pay for this, especially when they thought it out and found that the electrician must have spent almost three full days in putting up the lights, and voted to write a letter of protest to the Board of Education.

Last year the lights were installed by the school at a cost of nothing to the P-TA.

Said one member of the group during the meeting: "Anytime it takes an electrician three days to put up a few lights, he certainly must not know his job very well!"

Dole, Founder Of Pineapple Industry, Dies

HONOLULU — James Drummond Dole, founder of Hawaii's pineapple industry, died of a heart attack Wednesday in his Manoa Valley home. He was 80.

A native of Boston, Dole came to Hawaii after graduating from Harvard University in 1899. At age of 24, he opened a small plant near Honolulu and announced he would put canned pineapple on the shelves of every grocery store in the nation.

He borrowed $20,000 in San Francisco and planted 75,000 small pineapple plants on 12 acres. His success was immediate.

In the 1920's, Dole bought the entire island of Lanai, 60 miles from Honolulu, and turned its 13,000 acres of wasteland into a rich pineapple producing region.

He acted as president and manager of the Hawaiian Pineapple Company from 1903 to 1931 and served as chairman of the board from 1932 until his retirement in 1948.

Arner Given 3-Year Variance For New Hotel

The Board of Supervisors received and filed this week a planning commission report of approval of a variance to Samuel Arner of Cathedral City to permit establishment of a hotel on property located east of the southern prolongation of Dorn Road, approximately one-half mile south of Terrace Road.

The property is in a single family residential (R-1) zone. The variance is granted for a period of three years. It provides that there shall be no buildings or activities pertaining to the hotel operation within a 200-foot perimeter of the property.

The U. S. Crop Reporting Board estimates there will be a six per cent increase in the number of sows farrowed in 10 of the Corn Belt states.

County Grants 15-Year Lease on Ryan Airport for Recreational Development

A 15-year lease of a considerable portion of Ryan Airport near Hemet to Mr. and Mrs. George W. Holbrook, Jr., for operation of a community center for retired people was approved this week by a four to one vote of the Board of Supervisors.

Although Supervisor George Berkey argued the wisdom of tying the property up for 15 years, only Supervisor Paul Anderson opposed it when it came to a vote.

AIRPORTS DIRECTOR Joe Marriott repeated a statement this week that he made to the board two weeks ago, that the first period of the lease is for five years with two five-year renewal options which could be cancelled by the county or the lessee when each five year period is ended.

His belief was shattered, however, when Deputy County Counsel Justin McCarthy informed the board that the county cannot cancel when the five-year periods end. This privilege is reserved for the lessee.

"THIS MAKES IT a firm contract for 15 years and the board should consider it," said Anderson.

"It is possible that a desirable aeronautical type of development might be opportune at some time during the 15 years," commented Berkey.

"Aeronautical development during a 15-year period could be quite considerable," agreed Anderson. "Fifteen years is too long a time to tie up the property and is abnormally long for a business type of lease."

MARRIOTT SAID land at the east end of the airport on Sanderson should satisfy the need for industrial use.

Berkey suggested the possibility of a clause to allow the county to cancel the Holbrook lease provided reimbursement be made to the lessee. "If we wanted it back bad enough we should be willing to pay," he declared. McCarthy said it might be difficult to arrive at a reimbursement figure, but agreed that it could be worked out. Marriott said he believed the lessee might be agreeable to such a proposal. But the subject was dropped.

SAID DEPUTY County Counsel Leo Deegan, "A mutual cancellation could be negotiated if the need should arise."

The 15-year rental under terms of the lease will total $66,000. The property involved is a triangular piece of land bound on one of its three sides by the Santa Fe railroad and on another by Stetson Avenue.

The community center plan calls for a hotel or motel, or both, a trailer court, rental apartments,

Drug Companies Deny Charges Of Price Fixing

TRENTON, N. J. — Officials of five drug companies indicted on charges of fixing prices and monopolizing the production of Salk polio vaccine have denied the charges.

Reacting swiftly, and in some cases angrily, spokesmen for the firms labeled the government's charges "completely nonsense," "fantastic," "without substance," "a poor reward for the courage of management."

The indictment handed up Monday by a 23-member federal Grand Jury climaxed a year-long investigation into alleged price-fixing and other illegal practices in the distribution of the vaccine.

Indicted were Eli Lilly & Co., Indianapolis; Allied Laboratories, Inc., Kansas City, Mo.; American Home Products Corp., New York; Merck & Co., Rahway, N. J., and Parke Davis & Co., Detroit.

FOR THE FIRST TIME in the history of the local high school, a brother has turned the key of office of senior class president over to his sister, who will reign for the next year. Bill Daniel, 18, president of the 1957-58 senior class, turned over the key of the office to his sister, Ann Daniel, 16, next year's senior class president. The key, which lists the years that it has been used, is now on its tenth anniversary. Both Bill and Ann are top students at the high school. Bill was acclaimed the best artist in the school and was awarded a scholarship to the Chouinard Institute in Los Angeles this summer. Ann is a Junior Ambassador and past president of the SFO Society. ## New Building Code Ordinance Adopted by County Board

The new building code ordinance which makes the building code applicable in practically the entire inhabited area of the county was adopted by the Board of Supervisors this week.

The section of the ordinance which would allow a non-conforming dwelling to be altered or enlarged without bringing the entire structure up to standards, provided such dwelling is located on a parcel of more than five acres, was deleted.

EXCLUSION OF dwellings on larger acreage was designed to assist farmers, and Supervisor Fred McCall and Supervisor George Berkey said they thought the Farm Bureau should have an opportunity to consider that section of the ordinance before it is adopted. Paul Thompson, chairman of a special Farm Bureau building code committee, was unable to be present at the board session.

As presented last week the new ordinance required that the entire dwelling be brought up to standards only when located on "less than an acre."

Incorporation Dinner at DHS Is Postponed

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Postponement of a $25-a-plate dinner, programmed as a fund raising project for community incorporation, was announced today by the Desert Hot Springs Committee for Incorporation.

The dinner, scheduled for Saturday night at Addington's Restaurant, was postponed until committee officials can check the possibility of having a survey made on incorporation of the area.

WATER...

SUMMER WATERING

Now is the time to remember that the few minutes a day you spend watering will repay you in happy garden hours all summer.

Evaporation is highest now, and the smart gardener who wants larger, more vigorous plants... smoother, greener lawns... and increased bloom and color in flowers... maintains a consistent watering program. He puts water where it will do the most good as a solvent for natural and chemical foods in the soil.

Our experts say that, ordinarily, too much water is used in desert gardening. Our desert soil can hold very little water because it is coarse, and water is wasted by runoff or percolation... five to ten minutes' watering with an efficient sprinkler to a moisture penetration of not more than three inches is sufficient.

During the summer, it is best to water in the evening, and frequent watering is more effective than prolonged but irregular watering. Water regularly every day... water effectively, not wastefully...!

Condensed Works of Historian Toynbee Recommended for Summer Reading

Fascinating in the extreme for students of Philosophy, History, and just we plain everyday thinkers, are the works of the contemporary British historian, Arnold Toynbee.

For the non-teacher, only the condensed versions of his voluminous works should be attempted. His "History of Civilization," and "Civilization on Trial" would prove burdensome to the average reader of light fiction.

Toynbee's parents were writers and historians before him, and must have laid a great deal of the foundation work that has made the son Arnold, so famous in his field. Dry as the subject of world-history may seem to most, the present Toynbee has made the subject "Come Alive" with a challenging philosophy that can not be denied. It is one that reaches into nearly all phases of life and living for most all peoples of the world.

Foremost of his inter-woven philosophical themes, so skillfully blended in all his works, is that of "Challenge and Response." As Toynbee proves beyond any measure of controversy, no progress is possible by either men or nations without this stimulus of action and reaction. From the day the doctor or midwife delivers the first sharp slap on the posterior of the new-born babe until death ends its earthly career — man lives daily and hourly in this world of "Challenge and Response."

Nations that meet this challenge with wisdom and alacrity, survive and prosper. Those that do not, start to decay, and eventually disappear, replaced by those capable of meeting the challenges of the day.

This explains, as never before, why capitalist nations of our time must continue to bear up under the challenge of communism. Without such challenge, our response towards the demands of people for progress in every field of endeavor, would be sluggish and fitful. It keeps us on our toes and off our hind-sides.

Also, intriguing as it unfolds, is his point-by-point proof that the "Challengers" of every age and civilization are the "Dominant Minority" or doers—as opposed to the "Sluggish Majority," or non-doers. Also that each declining civilization since the recorded start of history, has preserved in a sort of cocoon or chrysalis, the best of its arts, architecture, science and religion, for the "Challengers and Doers" of some future civilization to find, and eventually integrate into the never-ending stream of world-progress.

For your summer reading and self-improvement—if that is desired, we recommend a condensed version of all the works of Arnold Toynbee.

Labor Statesmen

WASHINGTON, D. C.—In the Senate Press gallery another reporter nudged this one and nudged to the floor where two grizzled statesmen sat side by side. The reporter said:

"There's the American prototype of the British Labor party—the hard-boiled boss and the university professor."

He meant Senator Pat McNamara (D. Mich.) who used to be president of a plumber's union, and Senator Paul Douglas, once teacher of economics at the University of Chicago.

THE DESCRIPTION of these men as political Laborites is apt and not intended to be derogatory. The Labor movement, with its new white palaces in Washington, is going respectable, as it should. I have lately been reading an excellent book entitled, "The Labor Story," by A. J. Austin.

The recalling of the familiar tales of Haymarket and Homestead during the Labor-Management "war," is enough to make anybody aware that our American society owes a debt of recompense to the working population. This "war" (no other name will do) was mercifully brief and ended in favor of Labor, largely because the American public intervened on that side.

BUT THE FORMATION of a Labor Party in this country is not in the American tradition. It was never intended by the best of the early leaders. The concept expressed in separation of Church and State applies to trade unions. It is not unheard of for churchmen (Sen. Watkins of Utah is an example) to become Senators, but it would be unthinkable for any church to set itself up as a partisan unit.

True, the Laborites of the Congress have not done so officially, but the trend is beginning to show. Twice recently Senators Douglas and McNamara have caused reporters to think of them as emissaries of outside powers.

ON MAY 6 DOUGLAS appeared as a witness before a Senate committee and opened diplomatic negotiations, much as a foreign minister might do. The big, rough-hewn Senator, a purple heart Marine in World War II, offered something very much like a "treaty" on behalf of Labor, driving a shrewd bargain with two other powers, the Federal Government and American industry. Douglas proposed:

1. That the Federal government "either reduce or repeal numerous excise taxes on TV sets, refrigerators, radios, home appliances and other household durables . . . automobiles and auto parts . . . communications, transportation . . ."
2. Further, "that we cut income tax by . . . $50 per taxpayer."

AND WHAT WOULD be the quid pro quo, the pay-off? Well, speaking for the Labor movement, which Douglas often seems to do, the Senator was ambassadorially able to hint that:

" . . . the United Automobile Workers, in line with suggestions which their President, Mr. Reuther, made earlier this year, might well be willing to reconsider some of the demands . . .

in the new contract . . ."

IT ISN'T OFTEN, since the passing of absolute monarchies, that an ambassador brings such messages from a potentate like Walter Reuther to the seat of the American government. I do not say that Senator Douglas hasn't hit upon a dandy idea.

The country would immensely benefit from a workable plan by which we could simultaneously reduce prices, taxes and wages. But it does seem a little strange to find Labor in the role of a separate entity, seeking to negotiate with the USA.

EARLIER IN THE session, on March 24, Pat McNamara also, I think, acted in the person of a Labor envoy. He was well within his rights to become a minority-of-one on the McClellan so-called Rackets Committee. He publicly expressed his "individual views" on a probe, as many Senators have done in the past.

But McNamara took exactly the attitude that a foreign envoy would take if the USA criticized his small but proud and independent kingdom. McNamara told his colleagues in the Senate that the AFL-CIO had taken cognizance of the complaints and would do something about them in its own time and its own way. The Michigan Senator ambassadorially declined to sign the majority report.

"In view of this pledge, and of the Labor movement's activities to purge its ranks of corrupt and undemocratic influences . . ."

Both Senators Douglas and McNamara seem to accent the Labor movement as something apart.

—Holmes Alexander

Dear Abby . .

DEAR ABBY: My fiancé and I are planning a large church wedding. My parents approve, but my father flatly refuses to walk down the aisle. He said he and Mom went to the preacher's house and got married in twenty minutes and that should be good enough for me. Anyway, the only way I can get him down the aisle is to drag him. I have an older brother who says he'd do the honors but I think that is proper only when the father of the bride is dead. Please help me. I've always dreamed of walking down the aisle on my father's arm. BRIDE TO BE

DEAR BRIDE: Your father means well but he has a case of old-fashioned stage fright. If the combined efforts of your mother, the minister and you can't hush him, your best bet is to march down the aisle on your big brother's arm.

DEAR ABBY: My sister-in-law and I used to be the best of friends. For two years now she has ignored me. She has parties and doesn't invite me. I can't imagine what I ever did to offend her. My husband (her brother) says I should call her up and ask her why she's mad at me and I say SHE should call ME up and tell me what I did to her. Who is right?

NOT SPEAKING

DEAR NOT: Call HER! Time's a wastin'!

DEAR ABBY: I married a man and learned (after three children) that our marriage vows meant nothing to him. I fought against divorce for twelve years and finally gave in. He married one of the women he ran with during our marriage. I went to work the way he supposed to support me, but didn't and paid off our house. In the meantime, his marriage blew up. Our children are married now (he wasn't present) and out of lovelessness I let this no-good bum talk me into renting him a room in my house. He comes and goes as he pleases and sponges meals off me. He asks me to take his telephone messages. I have been doing it! Am I insane?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: If you were insane you wouldn't know how wrong this set up was. Get rid of him—and the sooner the better.

DEAR ABBY: I am going steady with a very nice boy. But there are a few things I wish he would do. First of all he wears a silk scarf around his neck that went out with high button shoes. His hair cut looks like his mother put the bowl on his head and cut around it. How can I tell him these things without hurting his feelings?

HIS GIRL

DEAR HIS: If you are "his girl," you should be able to suggest tactfully that he change barbers and give up the scarf.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Maybe That Will Make Him Move

THIS SIDE of The Sun

By Phat

First it was dogs. Now cats make the news. Seems my people just date on their news.

It all started last week, Be Kind to Animals Week, when one of these essays was apparently partial to the canine species.

FIRST OFF, a gentleman signing himself "Irate Citizen" wrote declaring that instead of a Be Kind to Animals Week we should have a Be Kind to Lawns and Flowers Week.

While mentioning cats, he concentrated his fire on dogs. Thinks there should be a tighter curb on them.

His views were duly presented here yesterday.

SHORTLY AFTER, came a communication, this from a woman.

"Just because you are a bosom pal of that tramp, Jo Jo, you should not have devoted most of your column on Be Kind to Animals to dogs."

"People love other animals, too. Some even have pet skunks. As for me, I happen to like cats. The way you write about them, no wonder they scratch you."

WELL, THAT, as we used to say in the Good Old Days, is that.

But over in Glendale, the council is taking official notice of cats.

It has a new ordinance in mind limiting the number of cats any household may own to three.

SEEMS TO ME that law is going to cause trouble. They should have set the limit at two. Like Noah did in the Ark.

But three—three Toms would lead to too much exterminating, three Tabbies would seem like an Old Maid's Home.

And if there were two of one and one of the other, which adds up to three, in either proportion, that would only encourage the Eternal Triangle we read about so much.

Well, anyway, the Glendale City Council also solemnly defined the feline age of consent.

They recognized the right of cats to have kittens and then ruled that any household could contain all of the kittens it wanted until they, the kittens, become four months old. They then became cats and must be given the extra to get the team down to the player limit of three.

LAST SUNDAY was Mother's Day. It was also a rainy day (at the beach where I happened to be.) So had plenty of time to browse through all of the Sunday papers.

A-I noted one little comment which I thought was excellent. A woman wrote that there are weeks and months for everything.

"We devote a whole week to pickles, a week to suetcrust and weights, a whole month to the gentle business, that's National Tidy Month."

"But only set aside one day for mothers."

True. But fathers, without whom there wouldn't be any mothers, also only have one day.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Has your luck been bad lately? Possibly you should change the location of your bathroom. That is the best way to break a streak of bad luck in Japan.

It must be fierce on the plumbing bills.

The maids at my hotel are constantly keeping bad luck off me. The chances I take! It makes them shiver.

"MUST NEVAH sleep wiz head point north!" I sleep on the straw-mat floor in my Japanese hotel. There is a draft from the window. I would like to sleep with my head the other way.

Such screaming. If I EVER do it again, they will change the location of the bathroom. I can hardly find the bathroom now. I guess it is better to get a stiff neck.

"WHEN SOME people die, you know? I going that house to make pray, I say. 'So sad.' I say sings like zat, you know?"

"Then come back home, my home. Before go into my house. I must call one of family. 'New I am return,' I tell. Then they come door and throw little salt on me. Then I can go into house."

WE MUST NEVER complain in restaurants, either.

"Suppose restaurant catch customer, make trouble. He say, 'Oh, I think you bad restaurant. I cannot eat zis. Maybe catch fry in zis food.' Oh, so. When customer go, owner come throw salt. Drive out bad luck."

"HOW ABOUT changing the bathroom? Maybe you still have bad luck, then what?"

"Neval happen! If bad luck continue long time, maybe poor long time. Man try hard but still poor. Then change benjo. Then come good luck."

If I buy a new pair of wooden slippers geta—"Must not wear nighttime when new. Very bad luck!"

NOR CAN WE TAKE a snapshot with three people: "Middle person in picture die very soon."

If we MUST have three in the picture, the middle person must carry a small doll. "Make four that way."

It takes a whole staff of maids to keep me out of trouble. I am reckless. Foolhardy. A snake-whisperer in the dark. I think the salt supply is getting a workout while I am here.

EARL WILSON: Lana Busy Reading Fan Mail

HOLLYWOOD — Lana Turner's swamped with great stacks of friendly letters—probably 50,000 of them—from big stars, casual acquaintances, housewives, ministers, priests, and ordinary fans . . . all wishing good luck to Lana and daughter Cheryl.

Since she's voluntarily made herself a virtual prisoner in her own home by her refusal to go out, Lana's reading all the mail and hoping, with a staff of secretaries, eventually to answer it.

Only a few, however, have written that they've said prayers for Lana and Cheryl.

No movie star has ever had such fan mail as has come to Lana since the Johnny Stompanato killing. Few stars have the time to read their mail but Lana, for the time being, wants to do little else.

In a week or two she will be considering going back to work. She has been away from her house only once or twice—she's refused to go to Palm Springs or elsewhere "just to get away."

Although visits with her daughter are limited, she can phone her unlimitedly—and they have been on the phone as many as 20 times a day.

Sophia Loren's going to heat up the N.Y. summer by making a Paramount movie there about a beautiful gal who's kept in a gilded cage by her multi-millionaire lover until one day (or night) she meets a serviceman who sneaks her out to such areas as Greenwich Village. The picture's "about somebody"—and you can start guessing, but don't mention it aloud, or he might sue.

We met Randy Jackson, the Los Angeles Dodgers' third baseman, touring the movie lots—and that brought up a Sam Goldwyn story about the time he inquired how much salary a certain third baseman got. When given the answer, he exclaimed, "That's outrageous! I wouldn't pay that much to a first baseman!"

Hearing about the Wilson Girls, Henny Youngman said his wife was chosen by Wilson—Woodrow Wilson.

THE MIDNIGHT EARL IN N.Y. Dick Clark's rock 'n' roll tour is being postponed (while he tries to sign big-name singers) . . . Got $400,000 You can buy 20 per cent of "Music Man" . . . Linda Christian missed one Brussels-bound plane, held up another while she said goodbye to Peter Theodoropoulos . . . Joel McCrea's son Jody says he'll wed actress Jennifer Lea after his army hitch . . . Gene Kelly flew to Boston to see pretty Noelle Adams in the sexy ballet, "Broken Date."

Buddy Fogelson's gift to Greer Garson when she quits "Auntie Mame" will be a European vacation . . . "Two for the Seesaw," a low-budget hit with two actors repaid its backers . . . BOAC is suing a well-publicized actress for $200 in excess baggage charges and she refuses to pay . . . Singer Line Renaud will star in a French TV version of "I Love Lucy."

Greta Thyssen's skirt was so tight that a passerby had to help lift her up a high curb . . . Pvt. Elvis Presley's being sought for the College News Conference TV'er after his basic training's finished . . . Bob Hope says he's done so much traveling that the airlines voted him a monogrammed container . . . Franchot Tone attended the Lunt and Fontanne premiere, wept through the drama.

Mike Connolly: Ava's Wedding Predicted

HOLLYWOOD — "The Naked Maja" starts shooting in Spain Monday (May 19), by which time her pals are positive Ava Gardner, the star of the picture, will be Mrs. Walter Chari.

Paramount's cannonball release of "Another Time, Another Place"—to cash in on the Lana Turner scandal before the ticket-buyers tired of reading about it—has backfired. Business has been bad, not because of the Stompanato headlines or the after-effects, but because of the picture itself.

BARBARA NICHOLS didn't know what to name her new French poodle. I listened to him bark over the phone and Barbara took my suggestion. His name is now Hi-Fi.

Barbara Stanwyck will co-star with Liz Taylor and Rock Hudson in "This Land Is Mine," about the grape growers of California's Napa Valley.

Parties, Posturings & Paradigms: Sandra Dee's mother took her daughter home early from Ann Sheridan's birthday party for producer Ross Hunter, helped the 16-year-old brush up on her Chaucer and Shelley for an English test, tucked her child in and then came back to the party.

SANDRA'S NEXT extracurricular activity will be the old Rochelle Hudson role in U-I's "Imitation of Life" remake. . . . Boozie, says Sammy Davis, Jr., is what some people take to loosen themselves up until they're tight.

The stars are shaping themselves up for those heavy-duty swings through the nation's straw-hat theatres. Van Johnson will reprise Bob Montgomery's old hit, "Night Must Fall," for two weeks in New Jersey.

ADD BARN BELT bits: Ann Sheridan in "Kind Sir," Carol Channing in "Wonderful Town," Anna Maria Albergotti in "Fanny," Carol Bruce and Hermione Gingold in "Fallen Angels" and Ella Logan in "Maggie," the musical version of Helen Hayes' favorite play, "What Every Woman Knows."

Fox unveiled some of its simply sensational Cinema-Scopes "Mardi Gras" celluloid for me at the studio, including a wonderful Paul Francis Webster-Sammy Fain melody, "The Big Brass Band," which has all the punch and drive of "Seventy-Six Trombones" from Broadway's "Music Man."

THE MARDI GRAS footage, shot in New Orleans, and the Virginia Military Institute, ball, with 900 cadets and their dates, are unbelievably beautiful, and the few scenes I saw of Gary Crosby revealed the lad has the same easy, throwaway-type song-styling as his dad.

Incidentally, Fox's factotums wanted to re-title the picture, because they didn't think too many customers would know what "Mardi Gras" means. But producer Jerry Wald held out for it and hired a survey outfit that made a world-wide poll and came up with the info that more people know what the Mardi Gras is than what Elvis Presley is!

Joan Davis claims she met a crumb-type actor who did something very thoughtful for his mother for Mother's Day—he changed his name:

TV TOPICS — Ed Wynn bypassed Screen Gems' telefilm series based on his old radio character, The Fire Chief, in favor of continuing the dramatic binge stirred up by his great comeback in Playhouse 90's "Requiem for a Heavyweight."

Jim Garner vacations from TV this summer by co-starring with Tab Hunter in Warner Brothers' feature film "Up Periscope" . . . Jack Webb has his dragnet out for Nancy Valentine, ex-Moharnee-of-Coco-Bear-turned-actress.

That fauble Bette Davis made all the fuss about dropping overboard when she waved goodbye to the docksiders in New York was the charm bracelet she received from Ralph Edwards on This Is Your Life . . . Bulletin-boarded at Ye Little Club in Beverly Hills: "So You've Bought Your New Auto—So Now You Auto Buy Boozie!"

SONJA HENIE, sans ice skates but with a rinkful of Yanqui bucks to back her up, will be star and hostess of a new 90-minute televariety series to be filmed in the capitals of Europe this summer. And, as though to guarantee the success of her series, Sonja sweettalked Alan Neuman away from his producer chores for NBC-TV's Wide World to let her supervise production on Sonja's segments.

Betimes, WWW's exec producer, Barry Wood, is boning up on Russian for his July jaunt to Moscow to tape two for World for the coming season. One of which, Barry hopes, will be titled Wide World Kremlin, including a televiewing tour of that building.

AL FISHER, Eddie's brother, will steer the course of Eddie's new music publishing house in London . . . Disneyland Records plans to press 100,000 platters for European sales of Jan Clayton's "Carousel" score, figuring that sufficient customers catching her capers in the Rodgers & Hart musical at the Brussels Fair this summer will want to buy the biscuit as a souvenir.

Last Party Poolside at Thunderbird

A poolside dinner dance and chuckwagon dinner Tuesday night brought activities to a close until next fall at Thunderbird Country Club. Colored lights were strung overhead and a dance floor set up where the pavilion stands during the winter months and guests danced to the music of Pat Barbara and his orchestra.

Jack Boyer's chuckwagon was drawn up at one side of the clubhouse and was serving prime ribs of beef, vegetables, salads, and range style beans.

The largest party at the closing night affair was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reynolds, who had two long tables for their guests. Around 75 attended the pre-dinner cocktail party at the Reynolds' Calico Road home, which overlooks the Club grounds.

Their guests included the Gordons Guibersons, Al Hunts, Billy Malouf, Frank Bogerts, Jack Kenastons, Barney Hinkles, George Robertsons, Lou Manseaus, Milt and Maggie Hicks, the Ralph Singers, J. Ross Clarks, Dick and Edith Edwards.

Also: the Howard Morris, Coe Thorntons, Walter Sibberts, Victor Hugo-Vidals, S. P. Manasses, Dolph Bremers, George Holsteins, Edgar Schills, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Morrey, Dick Long, Mmes. Ben Gale, Dolph Obergfel, John Costello, Harrison Barnes, B. J. Sanchez, Earl Buckingham, and many more.

Mrs. Omand Has Novel Accepted

Mrs. William Omand of 1000 Palms, who writes under the name Bessie Omand, has had a novel accepted for publication by Exposition Press Inc. of New York. Titled "The Littlest Quaker," the book is scheduled for fall publication.

The author is a former newspaper woman from Canada and her book has a locale that ranges from Canada to Southern California, with some desert scenes, and covers a period of 60 years in the life of a Quaker family.

The Omands will be returning to their home in Sherman Oaks in about 10 days to spend the summer.

A DINNER DANCE poolside under the stars was the closing affair at Thunderbird, with members and guests enjoying a chuckwagon dinner and dancing to the music of Pat Barbara's orchestra. Among the last dancers were Club Manager Edgar Schill and Mrs. Schill, on left, and Club President Kent Hayes, who was dancing with Mrs. Jack Kenaston. (Desert Sun Photo).

'Kismet' Is High School Prom Theme

Jeweled multi-colored chiffon draperies decorated the Racquet Club Friday evening when the Palm Springs High School held their annual Junior-Senior prom with the theme of the evening being "Kismet." An Arabian dome was placed over the entrance way and an elaborate antique trunk filled with jewels from the collection of senior Bill Daniel was quite a conversation piece.

President of the sponsoring Junior Class, Ann Daniel and her escort Nelson De Jesus, with Marilyn Barrick, who was crowned Queen of the Prom by principal Henry Greeley, and her escort David Self, led the Coronation Waltz.

Highlighting the entertainment for the evening was soloist Nanci Gardner, who sang "The Way You Look Tonight."

Senior class president Bill Daniel presented junior class president Ann Daniel (his sister) with the traditional key symbolic of the responsibility and privilege of becoming seniors.

Senior class advisors present were Mr. and Mrs. Irving Sussman, Chester McCarthy, Hilda Haigazn and junior class advisor John Kellogg and Mr. and Mrs. William Larson.

Among other faculty members attending were Messrs. and Mmes. Ralph Watt, James Workman, Bill Arnold, George Manning, Henry Greeley, Alex Hammond, Weyland Reynolds, Seanus Noonan.

Spring Calls for Rhubarb Dessert

Welcome spring with the first rhubarb of the season, turned out in a deep dish dessert called "rhubarb crumble."

In a greased shallow baking dish, place 4 cups of rhubarb cut in 1-inch pieces. Sprinkle with 1-3 to 1-2 cup sugar mixed with 1 tablespoon flour. To make the crumb topping, combine 3/4 cups quick-cooking rolled oats, 1/4 cup granulated sugar and 1/4 cup melted butter or margarine. Mix until crumbly.

Sprinkle crumb mixture over the rhubarb and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) 20 to 25 minutes. Serve warm or cold. If desired, top with whipped cream or ice cream. Makes 6 servings.

This is the Coultons' first child.

Sour Cream Sauce For the Chicken

Add a gourmet touch to chicken with sour cream and wine.

The California Foods Research Institute recommends seasoning a plump broiler or fryer as called for in a standard recipe. Brown the chicken thoroughly in oil and butter. Pour over 3/4 cup white wine, cover tightly and let simmer until tender. Add half a cup (or more to taste) of sour cream. Heat and serve. Sprinkle finely chopped chives, parsley or fresh herbs over the chicken just before serving.

Indians, Cougars End Season Here

Sports Indian cougars 30-3 ..... With only the most favorable turn of events giving them a chance for a tie for first place, Palm Springs High School baseball Indians host Beaumont high here tomorrow in the final game of the Riverside County League baseball game.

Fangio to Skip 500-Mile Classic

NEW YORK — World racing champion Juan Manuel Fangio will not participate in the Indianapolis 500-mile race on Memorial Day, it was announced today.

EXPERIENCED

RE-ELECT Assemblyman L. M. "Lee" BACKSTRAND

Re-Elect Assemblyman Backstrand Committee

J. A. "Red" Moss, Chairman

The Indians are in third place, a full game behind the pace-setting Hemet High Bulldogs and a half game behind the Coachella Arabs.

If the "ifs" all fall right, the Tribe can gain a tie for the top. But to have that happen, they must win from Beaumont while Hemet and Coachella lose. And that's not a rosy prospect for Coachella hosts sixth-place Banning and Hemet goes to Elsinore, down in fourth spot.

If Hemet wins, they'll be the 1938 champions no matter what the others do. If Hemet loses and the Arabs win, the latter will retain their RCL baseball title, won last year and for two years before.

It's a mighty slim chance but Coach George Scholl's boys will go all out against Beaumont just in case.

Hogan "In Mood" To Make Bid for Greenbrier Title

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. — The half-pint Texan with the 10-gallon hat full of golf tricks — Ben Hogan — allowed as how he was "in the right mood" to make a strong bid for his second Greenbrier Open golf championship as the $10,000 tournament got under way today.

But Hogan had his hands full from the likes of such as his old friendly rival, balding Sam Snead, defending champion Dutch Harrison and 54 other professionals.

Boros, Middlecoff Head Memphis Field

Musial Going After More Hitting Marks

By STAN MOCKLER
United Press Sports Writer
ST. LOUIS — Stan Musial, the three-grand man, was hot on the track of his newest objective today — becoming the hittingest player in National League history.

Musial said after he belted out the hit that put him in baseball's most selective group of 3,000 career hitters, that he had no intention of resting on his laurels.

And he proved it Wednesday night right after he joined the 3,000 club.

FRESH FROM GLOWING testimonials for his past performance from his bosses, general manager Bing Devine, field leader Fred Hutchinson and owner Gusie Busch, Stan stepped up to the plate on his first trip and lofted a 2-2 Johnny Antonelli pitch high on the roof of the right field pavilion.

The Cards won the game from the San Francisco Giants 3-2 and Don Blasingame's two-run double in the fifth, merely because it came after the Giants had scored two runs, must be rated the decisive blow. But the Cardinals could not have won without Musial's round-tripper.

HIS OTHER TWO HITS were singles and one was a little pop fly just over the infield.

"I wouldn't turn any of them down," he grinned. "After all, Willie Keeler went 'a long way 'hittin' 'em where they ain't."

To become the top hitter in league history, Musial must pass Honus Wagner, who had 3,430. He figures he has "a couple of more good seasons" which would put the goal within reach.

He and the surviving members of the 3,000-plus hitters—Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Nap Lajoie and Paul Waner—will all be honored again by the Cards on June 8.

But Stan is ready to forget about what he already has and consider what lies ahead.

"Let's get back to work," he said before the game.

And he proceeded to do so — it was just a case of business as Musial.

Martinez to Slow Down Fight Preps

GROSSINGER, N. Y. — Vince Martinez is "approaching his peak too fast" for his welterweight title fight with Virgil Atkins at St. Louis, June 6. "I'm going to slow down his pace," manager Bill Daley said Wednesday after Martinez sparred six rounds for the second straight day.

AUSSIES JOIN TOUR

Spahn Hangs Up Another Record

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer
While they're dusting off that Hall of Fame plaque for Stan Musial they might just as well start getting another ready for Warren Spahn.

A "young fella," some seven months younger than the mighty "Man" from St. Louis, Spahn reached another milestone in his career Wednesday night when he pitched the Milwaukee Braves to a 4-1 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies. It was Spahn's 230th win—a total surpassed by only three left-handers in modern National League history.

OF MORE IMMEDIATE interest to the Braves, of course, was the fact that they reclaimed first place when the St. Louis Cardinals beat the San Francisco Giants, 3-2. Musial, who apparently found his first 3,000 hits the hardest, got a big jump on his fourth thousand by hitting a homer and two singles that lifted his average back to .300.

The Pittsburgh Pirates achieved their second six-game winning streak of the season when they beat the Cincinnati Redlegs, 5-4, and the Chicago Cubs snapped a seven-game losing streak with a 7-3 decision over the Los Angeles Dodgers in the other National League games.

In the American League, the New York Yankees got some more of that magnificent pitching to beat the Baltimore Orioles, 1-0, the Chicago White Sox downed the Kansas City Athletics, 4-1, the Boston Red Sox topped the Washington Senators, 7-5, and the Cleveland Indians nipped the Detroit Tigers, 9-8.

THE UNBEATEN SPAHN, who turned 37 on April 23, struck out seven and yielded five hits in becoming the first six-game winner of the season. All six of his wins are complete games and he allowed a total of 12 runs in them.

Spahn himself smashed a run-scoring triple and Del Crandall and Johnny Logan homered for the big blows in the Braves' eight-hit attack.

Spahn already holds the NL record of eight 20-victory seasons by a left-hander and if he makes this No. 9 he'll stand a good chance to finish his career as the biggest lefty winner in league history. Those ahead of him are Vic Willis, 244, Carl Hubbell, 233, and Eppa Rixey, 266.

MUSIAL, who achieved his 3,000th hit on Tuesday, homered in his first appearance at the plate Wednesday night and added two singles for three of the Cardinals' nine hits. Vinegar Bend Mizell pitched a four-hitter as the Cardinals ran their winning streak to seven games and climbed into fifth place. Mizell had his worst moments in the first inning when Willie Mays was safe on a force-out, stole second and third and scored when the throw to third was wild.

Vernon Law won his fifth straight game for the Pirates, who collected 12 hits including three each by Ted Kluszewski and Bob Skinner. Dick Groat hit the most important single blow for the Pirates, however, a two-run fourth-inning triple that gave them a 5-3 lead. Cincinnati has lost five straight.

Lee Walls hit a single, double and his 11th homer as the Cubs dropped the Dodgers deeper into the cellar. Walls' homer opened a four-run Chicago seventh that clinched the decision and gave Jim Brosnan his third win. Carl Erskine was the loser for the Dodgers, who have yielded 58 runs in six straight defeats.

DODGERS TO DO BETTER AWAY FROM COLISEUM

PHILADELPHIA — The Los Angeles Dodgers pitchers, licking their wounds as they bade farewell to the Oriental haunts of their home Coliseum for an eastern trip, might get a grain of comfort today from Manager Mayo Smith of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Smith told a baseball forum of the Philadelphia Sports Writers Association he felt certain that the Dodger throwers, relieved of the standing menace of the modern day Chinese Wall in left field for a couple of weeks at least, would regain control and poise with the mental hazard of the short screen gone.

Answering questions from the floor, Smith said he felt the beckoning screen at the Coliseum "had a lot to do" with the Dodger staff which had the best earned run average in the National League last year.

"It's murder on the defense," Mayo said. "Get a couple of men on base and the wire is scratching your neck. The pitchers are conscious of it all the while."

"There's not as much pressure on our pitchers, or the visiting pitchers, as there is on the Dodgers," Mayo continued. "They have 77 games there, we have 11."

Smith said he believed the screen affected Don Drysdale, suffering with a 1-6 record.

Round Table, Galland Man Top Cup Field

INGLEWOOD — Round Table and Galland Man headed a list of 58 nominees announced today for the $162,100 Hollywood Gold Cup, which will be run here July 12.

Three-year-old contenders include Silky Sullivan, winner of the Santa Anita Derby, and Old Pueblo.

Nominees for the Gold Cup also include Oligarchy, Terrang, Porterhouse, Social Climber, Nashville, Like Magic, Seaneen, and Mystic Eye.

Meanwhile, Terrang was assigned top weight of 124 pounds for Saturday's $50,000-added Los Angeles Handicap.

Round Table, which had been nominated, was declared from the race and will continue to prepare for the $100,000-added Californian a week from Saturday.

In Wednesday's feature race, Lealito won the $7,500 Monterey Purse, but the race was marred by an accident involving favored Child's Play.

Child's Play, ridden by jockey Bill Harmatz, flipped over backwards as the starter set the field on its way. The horse tossed Harmatz while getting herself tangled in the gate.

The jockey escaped injury. Lealito paid $12.60, 5.90 and 4.60. Bright Wish was second and Sinful took place money.

Top Track Stars To Compete in Coliseum Relays

LOS ANGELES — Dozens of the nation's top track stars gathered today for the 18th annual Coliseum Relays, which this year will be run on grass for the first time.

Teams were due here from Manhattan College, Michigan State, North Texas State, Abilene Christian, Texas Southern Methodist and San Jose to stretch their legs for Friday night's competition.

Top performers were included in almost every event from the "Miracle Mile" to the shot put, pole vault, high jump, 100-yard dash, 440 and 880.

Meet officials predict 50,000 fans will turn out for the event and that the weather will be perfect.

DHS Chamber Warns May Have to Curtail Activities

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Chamber of Commerce officials today warned that they may have to suspend daily operations of the chamber office "unless more business house members are secured."

Chamber officers said the chamber needs more business memberships if the office is to stay open on a daily basis from October through January.

It was explained that the higher dues of business firm members are needed to provide sufficient revenue to maintain the various chamber services.

The chamber office is open daily for the convenience of visitors, it was pointed out. Officials said that closing of the office might cause a serious inconvenience for community visitors during the early part of the fall season.

Total chamber membership is now about 300, but many of these, it was noted, involve lower fee memberships from individuals and out-of-town firms.

Sunday School Picnic Planned At Indio Park

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Members of the Desert Hot Springs Community Methodist Church will hold a Sunday school picnic in the Indio city park Saturday, May 17.

The picnic program features games, entertainment and prizes. Members wishing to attend were asked to bring basket lunches and meet at the church at 10 a.m. Saturday. Anyone requiring transportation or able to take a few passengers should call Garnet Taylor, at FA 9-3201.

DHS Rainfall Is 7.30 Inches

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—Total rainfall for Desert Hot Springs since July 1, 1957, was today reported at 7.30 inches.

The precipitation count included seven-tenths of an inch recorded here Saturday. Rain for the same period the previous year was measured at 2.60 inches.

Shirley Shaw To Attend Meet

Shirley Shaw, secretary of Coachella Valley Savings and Loan Association will leave Friday to attend the National League of Insured Savings Association convention, scheduled Sunday through Thursday at the Drake Hotel in Chicago.

Farm Bureau Upholds Sales Tax Agreement

The Board of Supervisors was informed this week by Bryant Chandler, executive secretary of the Riverside County Farm Bureau, that the farm organization has adopted a definite stand on two important issues.

(1) Sales Tax: The Bureau will inform the board by letter that nothing less than the present program whereby cities (except for Palm Springs) give the county ten per cent of the sales tax collected within their boundaries, should be considered by the county. Rather than take less the county should abandon entirely the Bradley-Burns sales and use tax agreement.

(2) Air Pollution Control: The rules and regulations for air pollution control proposed by Air Pollution Control Engineer Clifton Seymour have been endorsed by the Farm Bureau except for a few minor changes.

These rules and regulations are being fought by an industrial group which has proposed an entirely different set of rules and regulations.

A general hearing has been set for June 16 at 2 p.m. and it is anticipated that farm groups and resort operators will be on hand to protect their interests as opposed to those of heavy industry.

Lapidary Class Attends Hobo Meet in Thermal

Thirty members of the Palm Springs Lapidary Classes and Lapidary Club attended a Hobo Roundup in the Hobo Jungle of the Glen and Martha Vargas Rancho near Thermal.

Several contests were held with valuable gemstones as prizes. The main event of the evening was raffles and mulligan, enjoyed (more or less) by all present. Barbecued steaks completed the menu.

This was the final social get-together for most of the rockhounds until next fall. However, a few of the "old faithful sun baked desert rats" will still hold forth through the summer, it was stated.

Blythe Women Want Billboard Control Law

The Palo Verde Valley Business and Professional Women's Club of Blythe is now on record for promotion and support of local and county legislation for control and limitation of billboard advertising along roads and highways in Riverside County. The Board of Supervisors was advised this week by the organization's president, Evelyn I. Bent.

Mecca Group Support Plan For Highway

Received by the Board of Supervisors this week and referred to the road department was a letter from the Mecca Civic Council expressing its decision to co-operate with the special committee of the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee on a master plan of highways from Palm Springs to Indio, relative to the improvement of Highway 111 and routing of a separate free-way.

GOP Assembly To Meet Monday

Palm Springs Republican Assembly will hold a special board meeting at 8 p.m., Monday, May 19, at 211 South Palm Canyon Drive.

Up for discussion will be a by-laws amendment to reduce dues from $5 to $2, and approval of committee chairmen.

Some of the lilacs which bloom during the Mackinac Island lilac festival in Michigan each year were planted more than 300 years ago by explorers.

A. E. (ART) MILLER, shown astride his world champion Palomino parse horse, Peavine Golden Major, will serve as Grand Marshal of Yucca Valley's annual Grubstake Days celebration May 17 and 18. He will lead the parade on Saturday.

Church Dinner To Benefit Camp Program

DESERT HOT SPRINGS—First Baptist Church youth will sponsor a dinner at 6 p.m. Sunday for the Baptist Church camping program.

No admission charge is required for the church dinner, but offerings will be taken from members wishing to help provide camping scholarships for church youths.

Church officials explained that a summer youth camp is maintained near Crestline, in the San Bernardino Mountains, by the Southern California Baptist Church.

The Sunday evening church service, at 7:30 p.m., will be conducted by the youth group. The program includes special music, featuring a solo and the junior choir, and a two-act dramatization entitled "The Transformation of the Judson Family."

Delaying Action Charged to PV Constable

A complaint that Constable Lee Hickey of the Palo Verde Valley Judicial District failed to serve an attachment promptly and "within a reasonable time" was received by the Board of Supervisors this week and referred to the constable with a request for explanation.

According to the complaint, as a result of the delay the account was not collected. The papers came back from U. S. Gypsum Co., marked: "no salary due, defendant on vacation."

Salton Sea Road Project Studied

A request by E. D. Killingsworth of Pico who has acquired a long term lease on Stratton Salt Company property at Salton Sea, for improvement of Arthur Street for a little over half a mile as an approach road, was referred by the Board of Supervisors this week to the road department.

Supervisor George Berkey said Killingsworth would participate in the improvement as a cooperative project. Charles Chestnut of Chino, an adjacent property owner, is also interested in the road improvement according to Killingsworth.

North Dakota replaced Kansas as the leading wheat producing state in 1957.

Yucca Valley's Grubstake Days Set for This Weekend

YUCCA VALLEY—Strutting at the head of the big and gaudy desert parade which opens Yucca Valley's famed Grubstake Days, May 17-18, will be what many authorities consider "the most beautiful horse in the world," the gorgeous palomino stallion, world champion parade horse, Peavine Golden Major.

Lovers of authentic western pageantry will flock from all over the West to watch the Golden Major, ridden by Grand Marshal A. E. (Art) Miller and glistening with $10,000 worth of intricate silver trappings, lead over 100 spectacular parade entries down the main thoroughfare of Yucca Valley to commence the wide-open two-day festivities.

THESE ENTRIES include two twinkling majorette groups with squads of pretty and high-stepping girls, a wide assortment of hand-somely decorated floats, dozens of gaily festooned horsemen, three colorful and brassy school bands, a Marine Corps Marching Drill Team, a beautifully precision-mounted drill team, the famed Model T Car Club from Long Beach and many others.

Also featured in the opening day parade will be the famous "Cactus Kate," a lovable snag-toothed, strangle-haired Desert Rat whose antics have made her the pet of many motion picture companies which shoot their films in the beautiful Yucca Valley.

THE CANTANKEROUS Kate will preside over a court composed of desert belles who have been past Queens of Grubstake Days and also this year's Queen and her attendants.

Honorary Mayor presiding over the free-wheeling and fun-filled two-day blowout will be popular entertainer Dick Sinclair whose "Polka Party" on KFI radio and "Polka Parade" on KTLA television have regaled thousands of Southern Californians with the tops in folk music and down-to-earth humor.

After the Grand Parade, which starts at 11 a.m., May 17, the fun-filled Midway will open offering games, food and drinks. At 2 p.m. comes the spectacular Gymkhana which is, as its name implies, a series of "games on horseback." Here, practically every trick known to horses and riders will be displayed for the visiting crowds. Top riders and performers will compete and exhibit their talents and handsome prizes will be awarded.

The true Western feeling of revelry will prevail far into the wee hours—and then, after a brief resting up time, the fun will start all over again the next day, Sunday, May 18.

Sloppy Males

AUBURN, N.Y. — (UP) — The Auburn Community College student council set out a suggestion box and promptly got a flood of suggestions, in feminine handwriting, that male students stop dressing sloppily.

Decision on Anti-Recession Tax Cut to Be Made by June

WASHINGTON — (UP) — President Eisenhower said today a decision on anti-recession tax cuts will have to be made by June. But he refused to speculate what the decision will be.

The President grew visibly irritated when he was asked at his weekly news conference whether he would veto an income tax cut if Congress decided to go ahead and vote one.

HE SAID HE WAS not going to prophesy what might happen, that he has told the reporters time and again that he was watching the situation, and that he would make a decision at the proper time.

A reporter then pointed out that present excise and corporation tax rates are due to drop automatically on June 30 unless Congress acts.

THE PRESIDENT replied he was aware of this and he said he agreed a decision on tax reduction will have to be made before the end of June.

At a news conference largely dominated by discussion of South American demonstrations against Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the President made only one other comment about the domestic economic situation.

IN REPLY TO a question, he vigorously reiterated his belief that it would be useless to undertake any large-scale new public works projects to create jobs.

With a few minor exceptions such as upstream water control projects, he said, any new public works undertaken now would require two years to get into actual construction. And with that time lag, he said, they wouldn't do anything for the present recession.
